Free Voters Guide Helpful Tips

Would you hire an employee without first looking at their resume? Of course not. So why would you vote for a candidate without first knowing where they stand on the issues? Liberty Institute, formerly Free Market Foundation, produces the most comprehensive Voters Guide with the largest distribution in Texas.

About This Guide:

Liberty Institute, formerly Free Market Foundation, produces this non-partisan, most comprehensive guide to help Texans cast a more informed vote. It is not an attempt to endorse or oppose any candidate.

We strive to give citizens comprehensive information, so we contact candidates multiple times via certified mail, phone calls, and multiple emails. For all of the candidates that took time to respond, we have enclosed their answers and campaign contact information. An • by an answer indicates further comments can be found on our website: www.freevotersguide.com. On the other hand, some candidates refused to answer our questionnaire despite our numerous communications with them. For those candidates, the party platform answers have been included and denoted by a ♦. We listed their phone numbers and encourage you to call and ask them where they stand on these important issues.

How Do I Read the Guide?

We provide a key below each question box to explain each of the symbols used in the guide.

The key will look like this:

SF = Strongly Favor F = Favor U = Undecided O = Oppose SO = Strongly Oppose NR = No Response * = Incumbent
♦-Party Platform Answer • = Comments & Additional Organizations Listed at www.freevotersguide.com

What offices are up for election in 2010?

The 2010 Election ballot will contain candidates for:

- Governor
- Lt. Governor, Attorney General, Land Commissioner, Agriculture Commissioner, Railroad Commissioner, Comptroller of Public Accounts
- Texas Supreme Court
- Texas Court of Criminal Appeals
- Texas Senate
- Texas House of Representatives
- State Board of Education
- U.S. House of Representatives

Which Candidates are in the Guide?

For the 2010 General Election, we cover all candidates running for state and federal elected offices that will appear on the ballot.

Why is My Candidate Not in the Guide?

If your candidate is not listed in this guide, then they are either unopposed in election or they chose not to respond to our questionnaire. Please check the unopposed and chose not to respond listing on the back of this guide.

What Are My Legal Rights?

It is your legal right to:

- 1) Take this guide with you into the voting booth (See Title 6 of the Election Code)
- 2) Distribute this guide anywhere, including churches or other non-profit organizations.
- 3) Churches and other organizations with questions regarding their rights for distribution of this guide should call Liberty Institute's Legal Division at 972-941-4444.

KEY TO STATE AND FEDERAL CANDIDATES

Due to space, we have only listed the explanation of the state and federal questions on this page. Instead, on each page, there will only be the key phrase listed above each question. For example, if you are looking at the first question for state candidates only “Transportation Tax” will be listed above the question. Please keep this page with you as you refer to the rest of the state and federal candidates.
